

2022 BALLOT GUIDE

Vote before 7 p.m. on November 8, 2022

STATEWIDE

Healthy School Meals for All

Ensures access to free, nutritious school meals for all students in public schools by limiting state income-tax deductions for the top 5% of Colorado income earners - people who make $300,000 per year or more.

Tax Transparency Table

Changes how measures about taxes show up on our ballots by requiring a simple table showing how much Coloradans will pay based on their income.

Tax Cut Benefiting Wealthy & Corporations

If passed, it would reduce approximately $400 million from the state budget that could otherwise be used to support programs and services which benefit all of us like schools, parks, roads, and community centers.

Funding for Affordable Housing Programs

Reduces about $80 from the average TABOR refund to set aside funds for new affordable housing programs like down payment and rental assistance.

COUNTY

Lodging Tax to Support Workforce Housing

Lodging tax on all accommodations rented for less than 30 days to support workforce housing.

Eagle County

Lodging Tax to Support Housing, Childcare

Lodging tax on short-term rentals to pay for affordable housing, childcare and other authorized purposes.

Summit County

MUNICIPAL

Short-term Rental Tax for Affordable Housing

Funds affordable housing through a short term rental tax.

Aspen

Short-term Rental Tax for Attainable Housing

Tax on short-term accommodations to fund affordable housing.

Carbondale

Accommodations Tax for Workforce Housing

Increases lodging tax to support workforce housing.

Glenwood Springs

Change Town Elections to November

Changes town elections to November, when most people vote.

Silt

Use of Existing Tax for Workforce Housing

Expands use of existing short-term rental tax to include workforce housing.

Snowmass Village

Voces Unidas de las Montañas and Voces Unidas Action Fund review all local, county and statewide ballot questions that impact residents of Summit, Lake, Eagle, Pitkin and Garfield counties.

We only take positions on ballot issues where we have a policy interest. We also do not support oppressive tax initiatives that disproportionately impact working families.
